FIRST READING

A reading from the first book of the Kings
1 Kgs 19:9.11-13

Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord God.

When Elijah reached Horeb, the mountain of God, he went into the cave and spent the night in it. Then he was told, 'Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord.' Then the Lord himself went by. There came a mighty wind, so strong it tore the mountains and shattered the rocks before the Lord. But the Lord was not in the wind. After the wind came an earthquake. But the Lord was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake came a fire. But the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire there came the sound of a gentle breeze. And when Elijah heard this, he covered his face with his cloak and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans
Rom 9:1-5

I would willingly be condemned if it could help my people.

What I want to say is no pretence; I say it in union with Christ – it is the truth – my conscience in union with the Holy Spirit assures me of it too. What I want to say is this: my sorrow is so great, my mental anguish so endless, I would willingly be condemned and be cut off from Christ if it could help my brothers of Israel, my own flesh and blood. They were adopted as sons, they were given the glory and the covenants; the Law and the ritual were drawn up for them, and the promises were made to them. They are descended from the patriarchs and from their flesh and blood came Christ who is above all, God for ever blessed! Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 84:9-14. R. v.8

- R. Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.
1. I will hear what the Lord God has to say, a voice that speaks of peace.
His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land. (R.)
  2. Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven. (R.)
  3. The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit.
Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps. (R.)

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I hope in the Lord, I trust in his word.

Alleluia

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
Mt 14:22-33

Command me to come to you over the water.

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side while he would send the crowds away. After sending the crowds away he went up into the hills by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, while the boat, by now far out on the lake, was battling with a heavy sea, for there was a head-wind. In the fourth watch of the night he went towards them, walking on the lake, and when the disciples saw him walking on the lake they were terrified.

GOSPEL (continued)

"It is a ghost" they said, and cried out in fear. But at once Jesus called out to them, saying, 'Courage! It is I! Do not be afraid.' It was Peter who answered. 'Lord,' he said 'if it is you, tell me to come to you across the water.' 'Come' said Jesus. Then Peter got out of the boat and started walking towards Jesus across the water, but as soon as he felt the force of the wind, he took fright and began to sink. 'Lord! Save me!' he cried. Jesus put out his hand at once and held him. 'Man of little faith,' he said 'why did you doubt?' And as they got into the boat the wind dropped. The men in the boat bowed down before him and said, 'Truly, you are the Son of God.'

"COURAGE! IT IS I!
DO NOT BE AFRAID!"

(Mt 14:27)

On Thursday, 6 August, the Church celebrated the Feast of the Transfiguration. 6 August 2020 also marked the 75th anniversary of the bombing destruction of Hiroshima and of Nagasaki (August 9).

The huge moral arguments for the bombing of these two cities is perhaps one of the biggest moral questions humanity has faced. It was where knowledge of the refining of physical explosive power was directly and unashamedly used on one's fellow human being.

The Transfiguration saw the bright LIGHT of GOD's LOVE shine forth on Jesus. The atomic bombing of these two Japanese cities in 1945 saw a different kind of bright LIGHT. The atomic bombings brought forth a bright LIGHT of pain, destruction and despair, which can still be felt today.

Yet today's Gospel reminds us that though the disciples are facing a fearful situation of encountering heavy seas on the lake, the light that is Jesus still offers hope in reassuring them: "

Courage! It is I! Do not be afraid!"

FEAR can of course take many forms. FEAR of: foreigners; refugees; other religions; other political views; fear of people of other sexualities. FEAR is not a life enriching aspect of life. It only stifles and narrows my world. It narrows my outlook.

We need to be people that replace FEAR and terror, not with the LIGHT OF POWER, but the LIGHT OF LOVE.

Let's pray we can see the different modes of LIGHT in my life – the LIGHT OF HUMAN POWER (which can be destructive) and the LIGHT OF LOVE.

Sometimes it's difficult for us to choose the right light.
