FEAST OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE 12 December

The story of Our Lady of Guadalupe is a beautiful one. She appeared to a Mexican indigenous man named Juan Diego, in a hillside called Tepeyac. She called him "My dearest and youngest son" and asked him to bring a message to the Bishop Don Fray Juan de Zumarraga, a Franciscan Priest. She wanted a temple to be built in that hill, so people could talk to her: "Those who cry to me, those who seek me, those who trust in me, because there I will listen to their weeping, their sadness, to remedy, to cleanse and nurse all their different troubles, their miseries, their suffering."

As expected, the bishop didn't believe Juan Diego, and sent him away. The Virgin appeared to Juan Diego 3 more times. The last time The Virgin appeared to Juan Diego was on the 12th of December 1531, she asked Juan Diego to go to the top of the hill and pick up all the roses that he will find there and take them to the Bishop as proof. Juan Diego found lots of beautiful roses, that he collected in the hollow of his garment (called "tilma" or "ayate"), when he went back to see The Virgin, she took the flowers in her hands, and then put them back in his tilma, asking him to show them to the Bishop only.

Juan Diego then went and saw the bishop and opened his garment and the roses fell to the floor, and at the same time the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared in the tilma. After this, the Bishop agreed to build the temple, as requested by Our Lady.

Interesting facts:

On the 14th of November 1921 someone left a bouquet of flowers in front of the altar in the Basilica, very close to the image, there were explosives hidden in the bouquet. The explosion was so strong that a massive cross that was just in front of the image was bent, also the marble stairs to the altar were crushed to pieces, but nothing happened to the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. If you go to the Basilica in Mexico, you can see the bent cross there.

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah
Is 61:1-2. 10-11

I exult for joy in the Lord

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me,
for the Lord has anointed me.
He has sent me to bring good news to the poor,
to bind up hearts that are broken;

to proclaim liberty to captives,
freedom to those in prison;
to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord.

'I exult for joy in the Lord,
my soul rejoices in my God,
for he has clothed me in the garments of salvation,
he has wrapped me in the cloak of integrity,
like a bridegroom wearing his wreath,
like a bride adorned in her jewels.

'For as the earth makes fresh things grow,
as a garden makes seeds spring up,
so will the Lord make both integrity and praise
spring up in the sight of the nations.'

The Word of the Lord

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians
1 Thes 5:16-24

May you all be kept blameless, spirit, soul and body, for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ

Be happy at all times; pray constantly; and for all things give thanks to God, because this is what God expects you to do in Christ Jesus.

Never try to suppress the Spirit or treat the gift of prophecy with contempt; think before you do anything – hold on to what is good and avoid every form of evil.

May the God of peace make you perfect and holy;
and may you all be kept safe and blameless, spirit,
soul and body, for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has called you and he will not fail you.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

Alleluia

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Lk 1:46-50. 53-54. R. Is 61:10

(R.) My soul rejoices in my God.

1. My soul glorifies the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God, my Saviour.
He looks on his servant in her nothingness;
henceforth all ages will call me blessed. (R.)
2. The Almighty works marvels for me.
Holy his name!
His mercy is from age to age,
on those who fear him. (R.)
3. He fills the starving with good things, sends the rich away empty.
He protects Israel, his servant,
remembering his mercy. (R.)

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John Jn 1:6-8. 19-28

There stands among you, unknown to you, the one who is coming after me.

A man came, sent by God.
His name was John.
He came as a witness,
as a witness to speak for the light,
so that everyone might believe through him.
He was not the light,
only a witness to speak for the light.

GOSPEL (continued)

This is how John appeared as a witness. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' he not only declared, but he declared quite openly, 'I am not the Christ.' 'Well then,' they asked, 'are you Elijah?' 'I am not,' he said. 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.' So they said to him, 'Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?' So John said, 'I am, as Isaiah prophesied:

a voice that cries in the wilderness:
Make a straight way for the Lord.'

Now these men had been sent by the Pharisees, and they put this further question to him, 'Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ, and not Elijah, and not the prophet?' John replied, 'I baptise with water; but there stands among you – unknown to you – the one who is coming after me; and I am not fit to undo his sandal-strap.' This happened at Bethany, on the far side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.
