FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Amos Am 8:4-7

The Lord God spoke against those who buy the poor for money.

Listen to this, you who trample on the needy and try to suppress the poor people of the country, you who say, 'When will New Moon be over so that we can sell our corn, and sabbath, so that we can market our wheat? Then by lowering the bushel, raising the shekel, by swindling and tampering with the scales, we can buy up the poor for money, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and get a price even for the sweepings of the wheat.'
The Lord swears it by the pride of Jacob, 'Never will I forget a single thing you have done.'

The Word of the Lord

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to Timothy
1 Tm 2:1-8

Let prayers be offered to God for everyone; he wants all people to be saved.

My advice is that, first of all, there should be prayers offered for everyone – petitions, intercessions and thanksgiving – and especially for kings and others in authority, so that we may be able to live religious and reverent lives in peace and quiet. To do this is right, and will please God our saviour: he wants everyone to be saved and reach full knowledge of the truth. For there is only one God, and there is only one mediator between God and mankind, himself a man, Christ Jesus, who sacrificed himself as a ransom for them all. He is the evidence of this, sent at the appointed time, and I have been named a herald and apostle of it and – I am telling the truth and no lie – a teacher of the faith and the truth to the pagans.

In every place, then, I want the men to lift their hands up reverently in prayer, with no anger or argument.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 112:1-2. 4-8. R. see vv.1. 7

(R.) Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

1. Praise, O servants of the Lord,
praise the name of the Lord!
May the name of the Lord be blessed both now and for evermore! (R.)
2. High above all nations is the Lord,
above the heavens his glory.
Who is like the Lord, our God,
who has risen on high to his throne
yet stoops from the heights to look down,
to look down upon heaven and earth? (R.)
3. From the dust he lifts up the lowly,
from the dunghheap he raises the poor
to set him in the company of princes, yes, with the princes of his people. (R.)

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor,
to make you rich out of his poverty.

Alleluia

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
Lk 16:10-13

You cannot be slaves both of God and of money.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'The man who can be trusted in little things can be trusted in great; the man who is dishonest in little things will be dishonest in great. If then you cannot be trusted with money, that tainted thing, who will trust you with genuine riches? And if you cannot be trusted with what is not yours, who will give you what is your very own?

'No servant can be the slave of two masters: he will either hate the first and love the second, or treat the first with respect and the second with scorn. You cannot be the slave both of God and of money.'

PARISH HALL RENOVATION APPEAL

I am pleased to provide details of the Parish Hall Renovation and Appeal, with booklets available at the entrances to the church and via the link below.

I am ever mindful that this is a difficult time financially for many families and this appeal is being conducted in a way that acknowledges those challenges. This Appeal seeks to raise $150,000 as a contribution to the costs of the works.

The works seek to modernise the Parish Hall facilities and will enable fit for purpose meeting spaces for parish, school and community groups.

Please direct any enquiries to the parish at admin@stpatmortlake.org.au or if you wish to be sent a Parish Hall Giving Form. Thank You.

A Night at the Bazaar!

Mural

A community activity!

The St Pat's Parish Twilight Events provide an opportunity to bring our local communities together for an evening of food, drinks, stalls and entertainment!

And so in keeping with our theme, we are inviting our community to participate in the making of our Twilight Event's mural with some Turkish-inspired tiles made by you!

Once complete, the tiles will be put up on our Church windows.

There are only a limited number of tiles to be made, so if you would like to be involved, please take home a tile-making kit (located in the Narthex). Please return completed tiles to the Parish Office by Friday 30th September or to the box in the Church Narthex by Sunday 2nd October.

Have fun!
